

Under the High Patronage of His Majesty the King Mohammed VI,

The First Forum of Young Moroccans of the World is taking place at Ifrane with nearly 500 participants

Press Release

The Council for the Moroccan Community Abroad (CCME) and the Ministry in charge of the Moroccan community living abroad (MCMRE) organize, in July 27-28 at IFRANE, the First Forum of Moroccan Youth of the World with nearly 500 participants coming from about thirty countries in different areas (Maghreb, West Africa, Europe, Middle-East, North America) and Morocco.

Held under the High Patronage of His Majesty the King Mohamed VI, this meeting will gather youth selected for their outstanding citizenship actions, entrepreneurship, or cultural creation. Through three thematic spaces (Creation – Commitment – Entrepreneurship). This forum will allow youth coming from immigration countries to exchange their experiences with their Moroccan peers.

To organize this forum, the CCME and the MCMRE requested an opinion poll from the BVA Institute. This unprecedented survey was conducted from May 17 to June 11, 2010 on a sample of 2610 youth aged between 18-34 years, living in the six great immigration countries of Europe (Germany, Belgium, France, Spain, Italy, and the Netherlands).

Mr. Mohamed Ameur and Mr. Driss El Yazami, as well as representatives from the BVA Institute will announce the results of the survey and will present the forum during a press conference on Monday July 26 at 4:00 PM at Golden Tulip Farah Hotel, Forces Armées Royales Ave. Casablanca.
